American TonerServ Announces No Affiliation/Connection With Recent Spam

American TonerServ Corporation (OTCBB: ASVP) announced today that it is seeking the identity of the parties which are responsible for the recent unsolicited emails that have been sent regarding the company.

American TonerServ has become aware of a bulk spam email that has been sent out without consent of the company and will act to seek parties who are responsible. The company will also investigate its options for legal recourse for compensatory and/or punitive damages from the responsible parties. The company emphasized that no such unsolicited communications had come from the company, nor has the company had any prior knowledge of these emails.

About American TonerServ:

American TonerServ Corporation has recently entered the public markets after more than a decade in operations providing a range of supplies and services for office equipment. The company's stated mission is to become the nation's leading distributor of compatible toner cartridges. American TonerServ has assembled a strong management team and advisory group to provide experience and direction as the company looks to expand its existing nationwide service network, and to gain market share in this large but highly fragmented compatible toner market.
